Masthead is a dynamic organisation that values members and is determined to ensure forward thinking. It adds value and provides excellent support. Its contribution to the industry is also most highly respected by all statutory role players. I have been a proud member of Masthead since its launch and have never looked back. What Masthead had done for my brokerage – and other independent brokers – is highly appreciated.

Congratulations Masthead, not only on your fifth birthday, but also on what you have achieved over this period!

Denzil Watt, Masthead member and chair of the Masthead Financial Advisors Association.
